

The Poole Passion is a community arts project - interfaith and intergenerational, and comprises an exciting group of (mostly) amateur actors, costume designers, stage managers etc. whose main activity is to put on a Passion play Through the Eyes of a Child (by Sharon Muiruri) every two years in Parkstone United Reform Church and St. Peter's Church, Parkstone. Our next performance will be 9th - 12th April 2014. Alongside this there are ongoing arts workshops and events including outreach drama workshops in Routes to Roots and a Mediaeval Nativity Play.

We are now looking for a volunteer to be our Treasurer.

The role will require:

- basic accountancy/bookkeeping skills
- attendance at and production of financial updates at 5 meetings per year
- keeping track of finances
- reimbursing expenditure/signing cheques promptly
- providing reports for our sponsors e.g. ACE
- producing reports - We will be applying to become a charity or Community Interest Group, so this will be required.
- providing financial information in support of grant applications

If you feel you could take on this role, please contact Stuart Turvey on 01202 540755 for further discussion.
